THOMAS JEFFERSON PLANNING DISTRICT COMMISSION

FY 2019-2023 STRATEGIC PLAN

“The TJPDC should act as the INTERSECTION of ideas, people and action bringing together people and ideas from ALL segments of the region to solve community issues.”

Spring of 2017 – the Commission determined that Regional Housing was a priority regional issue for the TJPDC to serve as an intersection of ideas & people and to convene and facilitate action.

CENTRAL VIRGINIA REGIONAL HOUSING PARTNERSHIP

April 2018

Tom Tom Civic Innovation Summit partnered with the TJPDC and the Urban Land Institute to host 7 Housing Speaker sessions and conclude with an Action Convening.

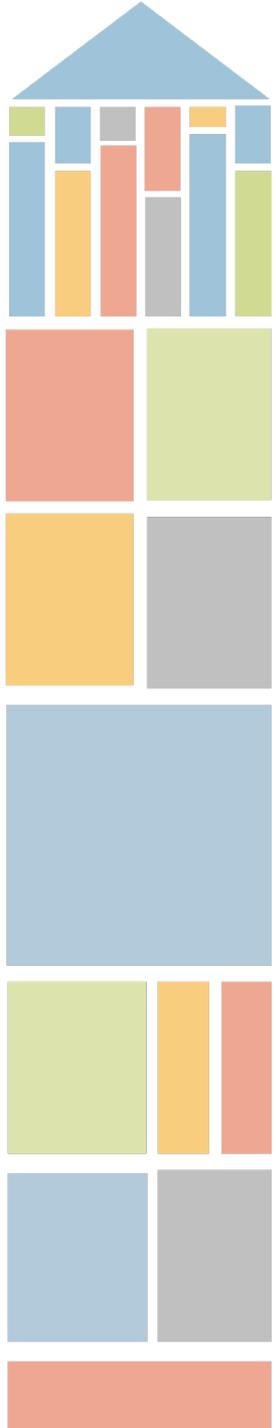

The Convening resulted in the creation of the Regional Housing Partnership.

Since 2018 the TJPDC has worked with a comprehensive stakeholder group to formalize the Central Virginia Regional Housing Partnership

CENTRAL VIRGINIA REGIONAL HOUSING PARTNERSHIP

The Regional Housing Partnership (RHP) is an advisory board, created by the Thomas Jefferson Planning District Commission, in partnership with multi-sector stakeholders related to housing. Composed of an overarching consortium of housing interests, the Partnership will enhance regional coordination and effectiveness.

CENTRAL VIRGINIA REGIONAL HOUSING PARTNERSHIP

- Further the Relationship Between Localities
- Address Unmet Housing Needs
- Connect Housing Efforts to Transportation and Workforce Development
- Preserve Housing Affordability
- Create a Formal Means for Sharing Information
- Integrate Housing into Other Decision-Making

CENTRAL VIRGINIA REGIONAL HOUSING PARTNERSHIP

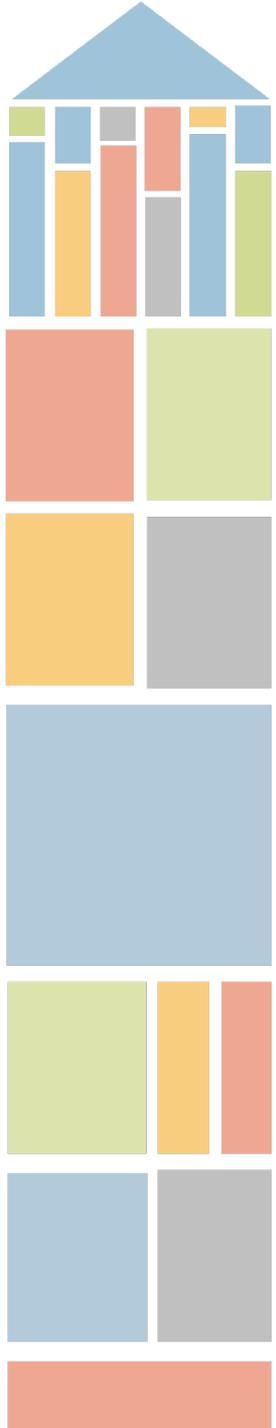

The composition of the RHP includes stakeholders from the public, private, nonprofit, and citizen sectors in the City of Charlottesville, Albemarle County, Greene County, Nelson County, Fluvanna County, and Louisa County. The composition may change with time as the Partners meet and identify other relevant stakeholders. The roster includes voting and advisory Members.

CENTRAL VIRGINIA REGIONAL HOUSING PARTNERSHIP

Results of the Partnership so far have included:

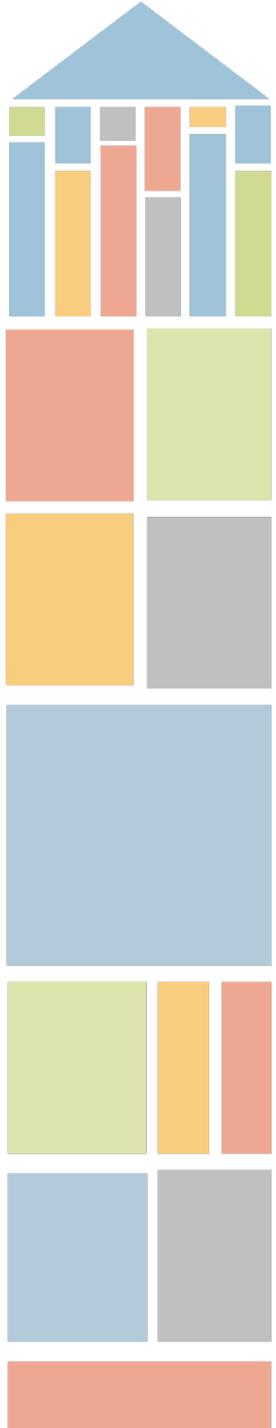

1. Partnership with Albemarle County and the Virginia Housing Development Authority to commission the Regional Housing Analysis to be presented to you today
2. A Regional Housing Strategies Plan that is currently underway
3. Today's Summit for regional decision makers
4. An upcoming event for community housing residents and citizens.
