

The Thomas Jefferson Planning District Commission Solid Waste Planning Unit Score for 2020 was 34.6. This number decreased from the previous year. A possible reason does not necessarily mean that recycling has decreased in the area, but could mean reporting was affected by the pandemic. Mandatory stay-at-home orders were being issued in March when reports were being requested.

Municipal Solid Waste

